GAME FORFEITED TO WESLEYAN.

Unsatisfactory and Unpleasant Ending of Contest.

The baseball game between Trinity and Wesleyan on Memorial Day resulted in a very unsatisfactory and unpleasant manner to all concerned. The game was forfeited to Wesleyan in the first half of the third inning, owing to the fact that the Trinity team left the field.

In spite of the rain a large crowd had assembled to witness the game, as this is always the big athletic event of the year in Middletown. Both colleges had large cheering sections and sang and yelled almost continuously.

The game started with Trinity at the bat, Connors flying out and Webster being retired at first base. Carroll was given a lift by Van Tassel's error, but Xanders was not able to score him, Dresser nailing his drive to left field. In Wesleyan's half, Beaton doubled to right, Wright sacrificing him to third; Van Tassel in attempting to bunt, struck out, and by a quick play Beaton was caught off third.

Smith opened the second with a clean hit, and went around to third on a passed ball, after A. L. Gildersleeve was called out on strikes. Abbey scored Smith on the squeeze play, and on the wild throw home by Beaton, took third. N. H. Gildersleeve scored Abbey on his sacrifice fly to left field, and Woodie closed the inning by striking out. Wesleyan's half of this inning was a night mare, as they succeeded in scoring four runs, on four bases on balls, and a lucky double to center field, which hit the board around the running track and bounded out of Webster's reach.

Connor opened the third inning by tripling to left field. The umpire called him out for failing to touch first base, whereupon Captain Xanders took his team off the field. It would seem to the impartial observer that Captain Xanders was justified in this action, as the umpire merely took the word of Captain Smith of Wesleyan and by no stretch of the imagination could have seen the play at first base, as he was engaged in watching the ball which fell near the left field foul line.

Rain fell heavily throughout the game and interrupted play three times, the players retiring to the stands. Soon after the umpire had declared the game forfeited to Wesleyan, rain fell so heavily that further play would have been impossible. The man who officiated as umpire last Saturday was a man absolutely incapable of fulfilling the duties of that office. His decisions on balls and strikes were simply execrable, this in a measure accounting for the run forced in by Woodie in the second inning by bases on balls. At the same time the called strikes on A. L. Gildersleeve and Woodie in the same inning were utterly impossible. It has never been Trinity's athletic policy to "kick" on the work of officials, but the work of the umpire in this game is absolutely without a parallel in our baseball history.

THE NEW TRINITY SONG BOOK.

To Contain Fine Collection of Trinity Songs.

A committee consisting of W. B. Davis, W. R. Cross '08, Paul Roberts '09 and H. C. Goodrich '09 has nearly completed the new Trinity Song Book. The book will consist of about thirty-five songs which will be Trinity songs, with perhaps the exception of a few old campus melodies. Many of the songs are the work of Mr. Davis, to whom too much praise cannot be given for his work along this line. He has been the trainer of the musical clubs for the past three years, in this and other ways he has done a great deal towards making Trinity a "singing" college. It is sincerely hoped that he will be able to continue this work during next year. Safford Waters '89 has also written several songs which will be published in the new book.

It is the intention of the committee in charge to have the book for sale at commencement. The price will be one dollar a copy.

SENIOR DRAMATICS.

The rehearsals for the senior play "The Stranger in the Church," are being held regularly under the direction of Prof. Cranston Brenton. The men are working well on the parts and the outlook for a successful play is good. Mr. E. B. Carns, scenic artist for the Hunter-Bradford players, has been engaged to paint the scenery for the production.

COLLEGE NEWS.

There will be a meeting of the Tripod board in the Tripod room to-night at 6:45 o'clock. Every member of the board is requested to be present on time, as this is the last meeting of the year.

H. B. Olmsted, captain of this year's track team will be one of the judges at the high school meet to be held on Trinity field next Saturday under the auspices of the Hartford Globe. Dr. Swan will officiate as timekeeper.

LUTHER 25th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.

The following letter has been sent out to each alumnus by the committee in charge of the celebration of President Luther's twenty-fifth anniversary:—

To the Alumni:

The interest and enthusiasm which all the alumni and friends of the college are displaying in the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Doctor Luther's official connection with the college indicate that it is to be one of the very great events in Trinity's history.

The highest tribute we can pay, and the one which our president will most value, is to be present on "Luther Day," Tuesday, June 23d, and by word and hand, express our appreciation of the twenty-five years of devoted service which he has rendered.

You will greatly assist the committee and insure the success of the occasion by complying with the following requests:—

1. Mail the inclosed postal-card to Edwin S. Allen, secretary, saying that you are (or at least hope) to be present.

2. Urge your classmates and all other Trinity men to come with you.

3. If you have not already done so, send to Dr. Victor C. Pedersen, 45 West 9th street, New York City, your subscription for the testimonial to be presented to Dr. Luther, and if you are willing to contribute more, please have no hesitancy about doing so. The first circular was worded so as to encourage small subscriptions from a large number.

4. If you absolutely cannot come, send a congratulatory letter, addressing it either to Dr. Luther or to Secretary E. S. Allen, in time for the celebration on the 23d.

Don't fail to come for Tuesday, June 23d, if for no longer.

Yours for Trinity,

Walter S. Schutz,

President Alumni Association.

COLLEGE MARSHAL ELECTED.

Paul Roberts Chosen.

At a college meeting held last evening Paul Roberts '09 of Hartford, Conn., was elected college marshal. The meeting was called to order by President Cross of the senior class. The men nominated for the position were: Paul Roberts, Stephen E. McGinley and J. Stratton Carpenter, Jr.

Roberts has recently been elected captain of the hockey team for next season. He has been a member of the musical clubs and college choir for the past three years. He has won his "T" on the track team and has been on the 'varsity football squad for three years. He is president of the Missionary Society. During the first term of his junior year he was class president. He is a member of the Sophomore Dining Club and the Psi Upsilon fraternity.

One of the most noticeable things about this meeting was the promptness with which it was called.

After the election of college marshal, H. I. Maxson '09 spoke on the condition of the Athletic Association and urged more men to join at once.

Roberts has appointed as his aids: S. E. McGinley, J. S. Carpenter, I. L. Xanders, H. I. Maxson, H. O. Peck, George Buck and A. W. Creedon, all of the junior class.

CORNELL WINS INTERCOLLEGIATE.

Although there was a severe down-pour of rain during most of the events, the thirty-third annual championship track and field meet of the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America was brought to a close on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, Saturday afternoon. Cornell and Pennsylvania each had four first places to their credit but the former won on its third and fourth places. This was due to Cornell's well balanced team which was especially strong in the long distance runs.

The final point score follows: Cornell 34, Pennsylvania 29½, Yale 22, Harvard 17½, Dartmouth 17, Swarthmore 6, Michigan 6, Columbia 4, Princeton 4, Syracuse 3.

Wesleyan Game.

The facts connected with the forfeiture of the Wesleyan-Trinity baseball game last Saturday have become pretty well known and understood by this time. Theoretically in the game of baseball, the umpire's decision on a question of fact cannot be questioned, no matter how monstrous it may seem, and if the umpire states that he saw the play at first base last Saturday, on which he called Connor out, his word is law, no matter how certain it is that it was absolutely impossible for him to see it. Yet Captain Xanders may have the assurance that his action of withdrawing his team from play is backed up by everyone interested in Trinity athletics, for it would have been a travesty on the national game to have continued with such an official running the game, and it is not extreme to say that Trinity had no chance for a victory under the conditions. While this was a most regrettable occurrence, it is to be hoped that such a thing will never happen again and that no permanent ill-feeling between the colleges will arise from it. It is a great satisfaction to all Trinity men that the game went long enough last Saturday to give us the assurance that Trinity has the better baseball team, and that the players will demonstrate this to be true when Wesleyan plays on Trinity field, with a competent official doing the umpiring, and, we hope for better weather conditions.

Before the Wesleyan meet a number of successful sings were held, and it was announced they would be a regular feature every Tuesday and Friday evening. Last Friday in particular, as the day before the Wesleyan game, was selected as an appropriate time to practice songs, but there were not enough present to make it worth while.

It would seem that this is a very poor sort of college spirit to show on the night before one of the most important games of the season and we earnestly hope that the leaders in this movement to increase the efficiency of our college singing will not meet with such discouraging results in the future.

"THE KINGDOM—STANDARD OIL."

The following verses, are by one of our alumni who has written a number of very popular Trinity songs:—
The Sun ne'er sets, they tell us,
On Imperial Britain's soil,
But John D. has Edward whip-sawed
With his Kingdom "Standard Oil"—
When it comes to "pipes" and "cinches",
Who competes with King John's mirth?
For the pipes he lays are cinched round all
The boa-constricted earth.

Then it's squeeze the orange dry, John,
With its juice of golden spoil—
Politics can't stop the navy
Built to fight for Standard Oil.

There's an army, too, it's whispered, Organized to "rush the can"— Uncle Sam's bunch cannot touch it
If you count each, Man for Man—
And the wealth of all the Indies
'Twould be foolish to compare
With the wealth that's governed by the King Whose crown rests on no hair.

Then it's give a dozen millions
Where they do the smallest good—
The unfortunate need sage advice
And hate the sight of food.

If I owned a modest portion
In the Kingdom of the Sky
I'd expect John D. to grab it
In the blissful bye and bye,
For that octopus so oily
Would squeeze through and get his hold (Past St. Peter and his gate)
Upon those streets of shining gold.

Then it's, here's your hale, Johnny,
Fit reward for honest toil,
Business mingles with religion
And anoints with Standard Oil.
—Safford Waters '87.

THE BILTMORE FOREST SCHOOL.

Interesting Letter From Trinity Alumnus.

Editor Trinity Tripod:—

A member of the faculty suggested to me that I write for the Tripod something in regard to the Biltmore Forest School, and I am so doing, trusting that a few words about a unique school may be of interest to some of your readers.

The Biltmore Forest School is unique in being a "master school," similar to the old schools of philosophy, of art, of science, and the earlier schools of forestry in Germany. The "master" is Dr. C. A. Scheneck, a graduate of a German university and a "pupil" of the famous "masters" of forestry in Germany, one of them being Sir Dietrich Brandis, who is in charge of the large government forests of India. The number of students being limited to twenty-five, each individual has every opportunity to absorb the teachings and energy of the director. The contact between "teacher" and "pupil" is close, as nearly every day the "master" and his

"pupils" ride or walk over some part of the Biltmore estate, which is over two hundred square miles in area and exhibits to the observer as he travels from the lower portions upward to the mountain tops practically every forest type he would see if he traveled from Virginia to Maine. Frequently the "master" stops and the school, gathering about him, listens to an impromptu lecture on some subject suggested by the surrounding woods and fields.

Another feature of the Biltmore Forest School that I wish to emphasize, is the fact that the director of the school, as well as being a scientist, is a practical and successful lumberman. Forestry is a science which appeals to the sentimentalist who too frequently takes the "woodsman, spare that tree" attitude, whereas, forestry is also an art, and the motto might well be changed to "Woodsman, USE that tree." This digression is simply to emphasize the fact that the student at Biltmore has an opportunity to learn something practical, in that he has a chance to learn how to be a successful lumberman. Who can teach a business or a science better than one who is practicing as well as teaching? In this respect I think that Biltmore is again unique; lumbering, or, to use a broader term, forest utilization, is taught by a man who is a lumberman, a utilizer of forests, a man who attempts to obtain the largest possible rate of interest from forestal investments.

It is these two points that I wish most to emphasize, the fact that what the student learns at Biltmore is practical and that during his course there he is subjected to the influence of a man who is not afraid to think, and who instills his ideas and enthusiasm into those about him. I must not overlook the splendid corps of lecturers in the auxiliary sciences, botany, zoology, geology, law and on special subjects; but notwithstanding the fact that there are others, I think that Biltmore can be classed as a "master school," in distinction to the majority

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

HARTFORD, CONN.,

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities, and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company. In a company that earns, declares, and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

$8.50 PUNCTURE-PROOF TIRES ONLY $4.80 PER PAIR

Regular Price $8.50 per pair.

To introduce We Will Sell You a Sample Pair for Only

(CASH WITH ORDER $4.55)

NO MORE TROUBLE FROM PUNCTURES.

Result of 15 years experience in tire making. No danger from THORNS, CACTUS, PINS, NAILS, TACKS or GLASS.

Serious punctures, like intentional knife cuts, can be vulcanized like any other tire.

Two Hundred Thousand pairs now in actual use. Over Seventy-five Thousand pairs sold last year.

DESCRIPTION: Made in all sizes. It is lively and easy riding, very durable and lined inside with a special quality of rubber, which never becomes porous and which closes up small punctures without allowing the air to escape.

We have hundreds of letters from satisfied customers stating that their tires have only been pumped up once or twice in a whole season. They weigh no more than an ordinary tire, the puncture resisting qualities being given by several layers of thin, specially prepared fabric on the tread. That "Holding Back" sensation commonly felt when riding on asphalt or soft roads is overcome by the patent "Basket Weave" tread which prevents all air from being squeezed out between the tire and the road thus overcoming all suction. The regular price of these tires is $8.50 per pair, but for advertising purposes we are making a special factory price to the rider of only $4.80 per pair. All orders shipped same day letter is received. We ship C.O.D. on approval. You do not pay a cent until you have examined and found them strictly as represented.

We will allow a cash discount of 5 per cent (thereby making the price $4.55 per pair) if you send FULL CASH WITH ORDER and enclose this advertisement. We will also send one nickel plated brass hand pump and two Sampson metal puncture closers on full paid orders (these metal puncture closers to be used in case of intentional knife cuts or heavy gashes). Tires to be returned at OUR expense if for any reason they are not satisfactory on examination.

We are perfectly reliable and money sent to us is as safe as in a bank. Ask your Postmaster, Banker, Express or Freight Agent or the Editor of this paper about us. If you order a pair of these tires, you will find that they will ride easier, run faster, wear better, last longer and look finer than any tire you have ever used or seen at any price. We know that you will be so well pleased that when you want a bicycle you will give us your order. We want you to send us a small trial order at once, hence this remarkable tire offer.

COASTER-BRAKES, built-up-wheels, saddles, pedals, parts and repairs, and everything in the bicycle line are sold by us at half the usual prices charged by dealers and repair men. Write for our big SUNDRY catalogue.

DO NOT WAIT but write us a postal today. DO NOT THINK OF BUYING a bicycle or a pair of tires from anyone until you know the new and wonderful offers we are making. It only costs a postal to learn everything. Write it NOW.
